CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

HARRY THOBURN'S SOMERSAULT.

An accident marred the sport at Harlem yesterday and the crowd was compelled to hold its breath for a few moments until it was assured that jockeys Burns on Sea Lion and Rose on John Baker had escaped. Horses and boys were mixed up and shaken but came out of the accident without injury.

The mix-up was a very queer one and purely the fault of Master Rose. He tried to push John Baker through next to the rail on the stretch turn. Baker jumped on the filly, mixed up his feet and fell. Sea Lion, behind Baker, turned a somersault with Burns. There was an ugly-looking mass of boys and horses for a few seconds. The soft track was a savior for all, and Master Rose, remounting John Baker, rode him home and won third money. John Baker was a strong and natural favorite around 7 to 5. The talent fell with him. Had the horse not fallen it is very doubtful if he would have won. Ida Ledford is a good filly in the mud, and she won easily and impressively.

Lieutenant McGuigan's Tulane has been running most inconsistently of late, that, after he was beaten away off in the second race, at a mile, the judges decided that the racing could get along healthily without Tulane and in the future his entry will be refused at Harlem. Hittick won the Tulane race in a jaunty way from Long Dandy. Sam L'zarns, Esq. was an even money favorite, but Vittoe rode a bad race on him and he landed third.

Harry Thoburn turned a form somersault of weird scope in the third event. He is an exceptionally good mud runner, it is true, but his last race was in soft going and far from good. Consequently he was a 5 to 1 chance in the betting. Thoburn broke second, but immediately went to the front and stepping the first quarter in 25 1/2 seconds, opened up a big gap and won off by himself. The judge's will investigate Thoburn's in and out running.

The heavily played favorite, Joe Shelby, ran a shabby race in the closing nine furlong event. He broke with the other horses but pricked his ears and refused to go on. Beaten off a furlong going the first quarter, he took a notion to run and finished fifth well up in the bunch. Albertvale at 8 to 1 won the race easily. His win was a reasonable one.

Tom Barrett bet heavily on his filly, Brownie Anderson, and she won the fifth race off by herself.

Florinel II., with Vittoe up, beat the barrier in the opening six furlong scramble and, eased up at the finish, was six lengths to the good.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"The racing season of '99 has been productive of more first-class 2 year-olds than we have ever before had in any one year," declared the veteran John Duffy at the Fair Grounds the other morning. "In the east, for instance, they have a whole raft of first-class youngsters. Mesmerist and Chacornac seem to be about the best of the eastern cracks, a list of which would not be complete without the names of the following: Lieutenant Gibson, Prince of Melbourne, McMeekin, Maribert, Vulcain, King's Courier, Colonel Roosevelt, David Garrick, Doublet, Water King, Papil, Windmere, Gulden and Gonfloo. Nearly all of these colts are stake winners. Of the fillies it looks as though the Whitney-Paget trick Killashandra is the best, although there is no telling just how good John McCafferty's Florist filly Cleora really is. The Keene filly Runaway Girl is another mighty fast proposition. Golden Rule, Sam Phillips, The Conqueror, Sam Fullen, Aven-stoke, Greenock, Boundlee and Thrive are about the best of the western colts. None of them, unless it is The Conqueror, can be compared with the eastern cracks. Sam Phillips and Golden Rule measured strides with the eastern stars at Saratoga, but both of them were beaten every time they hooked up with Mesmerist, Maribert and their kind. Alice Turner, Ida Ledford, Unsightly, Flamora, Triaditza and Silver Fizz are about the best of the western fillies. I look for Alice Turner to develop into a mighty useful three-year-old filly."—St. Louis Republic.

Secretary Hopper, of the Latonia Jockey Club, is making strenuous efforts to have a gala day for society on one day during the coming fall meeting at his track.

The day set is Saturday, October 14. The feature of the card will be a gentlemen riders' event at a mile.

Invitations have been extended gentlemen riders throughout the country, as it is proposed to make this event of a national character.

President Shrick, who is spending the summer and autumn at his country place on Long Island, has been very busy the past two months getting the affair into shape. Invitations to participate in this race have been extended to Mr Maddox and Mr. Hoos of Warrento, Virginia; Mr. Keyes of Columbus, Ohio, the winner of Latonia's last gentlemen's race. Several members of St. Louis' four hundred have been invited. C. F. B. Morse, formerly of Cincinnati, now located in New Orleans, will look after riders in the Gulf States. Messrs. Haydock, Eckert and Carew of this city will likely be among the contestants from Cincinnati.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

During the last year the ranks of thoroughbred stallions have been considerably depleted by death, as no less than seven well known American thoroughbred sires have passed away. This fact is by no means an occasion for alarm, for there are plenty of young stallions whose breeding is equally as good as that of the departed ones to take their place, but owners of desirable stallions should make due note of the fact mentioned above and govern themselves accordingly.

The stallions who have died are Fiddlesticks, by Lexington—Filagree, by Stockwell; Tremont, by Virgil—Ann Fieff, by Alarm; Hanover, by Hindoo—Bourbon Belle, by Bonnie Scotland; Kinglike, by King Ernest—Mimi, by Eclipse; Eric, by Pretender—Bell Heather, by Stockwell; Sensation, by Leamington—Susan Beane, by Lexington and Irquois, by Leamington—Maggie B. B., by Australian.—Spirit of the Times.

Racegoers are looking forward eagerly to the cheerful possibilities presented by the autumn racing at Morris Park. The Westchester Racing Association has prepared a schedule, extending from October 3 to October 21, with a rich array of stakes that have all filled well. The distance handicaps that were regarded as so many gifts to Ben Holladay have assumed a much more open aspect since the signal defeat of the big Hanover horse on last Saturday. Old Ben used to be the popular idol, but although he was held at almost prohibitive odds in the ring for the Second Special, the plaudits of the crowd went to Imp, even before she had annexed the stake. The western mare richly deserved the enthusiastic greeting extended to her on Saturday, but luckily for her followers, the demonstration did not "wake her up." She went to the post as stolidly as if life were not worth living, and then sailed away from the bunch of cracks entered against her with such ease that even the regulars threw their hands up.—New York Sun.

IROQUOIS.

The death of this great racehorse and sire is a severe loss to his owners, for though he was 21 years of age he seemed just in the prime of life and everything by him commanded a high value. To the turf world his loss will certainly be regretted, for from him have come some of our greatest turf performers in late years. Iroquois, a brown horse, was bred at the Erden-heim Stud of A. Welch near Philadelphia. He was by Leamington—Maggie B. B., by Austr-lian. He was purchased as a yearling at a fancy figure by Pierre Lorillard, who placed him in the hands of Jacob Pincus.

The fall he was a yearling Pincus took Iroquois and other horses owned by Mr. Lorillard to England to campaign on the English turf.
Every one knows the result of this invasion of England. It was entirely successful. As a two-year-old Iroquois started five times, winning in four—all large stakes.

In his first start as a three-year-old he met his only defeat of that year, running second to Peregrine in the Two Thousand Guineas. He turned the tables on his conqueror in the Derby, at Epsom, and defeated him in easy fashion.

Iroquois then won the Prince of Wales Stakes, Great Champion and other leading events in England, winding up his three-year-old career by winning the famous St. Leger at Doncaster.

He started seven times as a three-year-old and won six, all famous events on the English turf. In all of these he was piloted to victory by England's premier jockey, the famous Fred Archer. He did not start as a four-year-old, but resumed his career the year following, running in two events early in the spring but without success.

Mr. Lorillard then brought him to America, arriving here early in July. In order to give the American public a chance to see this famous horse perform he was given a hurried preparation and started in two events early in August and once later on at Baltimore. In the two earlier races he met the greatest horses then on the American turf. He was defeated in both, George Kinney winning the first and Eole the other.

Iroquois was then retired to Mr. Lorillard's Rancocas Stud, Jobstown, N. J. There he sired that grand two-year-old Cayuga.

At the dispersal sale of the Rancocas Stud Iroquois was purchased by General Jackson for $25,000 and brought to Belle Meade. Here his success as a sire has been wonderful. Huron, Tammany, G. W. Johnson, White Frost, Bangle, Julius Sax, Addie, Red Banner and a host of others were sired by this great horse.

To Belle Meade his death is a severe loss, for it will be next to impossible to replace him.
Fortunately General Jackson has just purchased one of his best sons, Huron. This horse, though young, has produced several good winners and it is to be hoped that in Huron General Jackson will find a horse worthy to fill the vacancy left by the death of Iroquois.

General Jackson states that he intended to remove the hoofs of the famous stallion and have them made into cups, finely mounted.

An autopsy over the body of Iroquois, the famous stallion, was held in the horse's paddock at Belle Meade, by Dr. W. N. D. Bird, Dr. Joseph Plaskett, Dr. George R. White and Dr. William C. Rayen. The examination revealed the fact that the great sire of thoroughbreds had died of chronic nephritis, inflammation of the kidneys. In fact, one of the kidneys was found to have entirely disintegrated.
After the autopsy Iroquois was buried in his paddock.—Nashville American.

ENGLISH YEARLING PRICES.

Many yearlings are annually sold at Doncaster during the progress of the meeting and as illustrating the high prices they frequently bring as compared with American results, the following from a special to a New York newspaper should prove of interest:

"The record was made by Mr. J. Simmons
Harrison's magnificent chestnut colt, Silver Bay, by Bend Or, out of Silver Sea, she by Hermit, out of Stray Shot, by Toxophilite. Silver Sea is a full sister to Penitent, dam of Ravensbury, and to Shotover, winner of the Oaks, and dam of Bullington. Sir Edgar Vincent and Mr.
Reid Walker were the contenders, with Sir John Blundell Maple, but the last named proved the best stayer, and got the colt for $15,000 and would have gone to $20,000 had it been necessary.
Other good prices in Mr. Harrison's lot were $6,500 for the Mt. Serf—Orlet colt, $4,400 for the Orme—Pamela colt, $4,050 for the Best Man—Barletta colt (who has been named One of the Best), $4,250 for the colt by Orme of Kendal—Stirrup Cup, and $3,500 for the Bend Or—Irish Melody filly.

"Sir Tatton Sykes offered a choice batch of Sledmere youngsters, four of which aggregated $35,000. The splendid filly by Isinglass, out of La Fleche, provoked spirited competition, and was eventually taken by Mr. J. W. Larnach for $13,000. Mr. Larnach owns La Veine, the Morian filly, which was La Fleche's first produce.
Sir Tatton gave $3,000 for La Fleche at the dissolution of the stud of the late Baron

Hirsch in 1896. He received $13,500 for her Morion colt of 1897, which makes him net $26,500 for her two foals thus far dropped at Sledmere, Lar-nach also buying La Veine as a foal at the Hirsch sale for $15,500.

"Thus we find Mr. Larnach giving no less than $42,000 for all three of La Fleche's foals, from which it would seem that he is quite likely to step up and buy each La Fleche yearling annually, doubtless in the belief that she must eventually throw a crack.

"Sir Tatton's St. Simon—Mimi colt went to Mr. G. Beatty for $13,000. The preceding relatives of this youngster have been virtual disappointments, but experts agree that this fellow considerably outclasses them all. Mimi originally cost Sir Tatton about $25,000, but he has gotten all this back with handsome interest.
Sir J. Blundell Maple gave $7,750 for the Kendal —Chrysalis colt, full brother to Laodamia, and Mr. R. Marsh gave the same sum for the Ising-lass—Claribelle filly, which many experts preferred to the La Fleche filly."

1899 ANNUAL RACING FORM.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving, but with something left; second and third under keen pressure. Hittick had a good ride today and ran a much better race than he did his last out. This race can hardly be counted on to figure future form from. Sam Laza vs Esq. got a bad ride and Long Dandy far over-raced himself. On the other hand, Tulane's performance was a fright. He did not have a bit of speed and was beaten off going half a mile. Burns seemed to get disgusted and eased him up at the end. Do not count this race for Tulane. He can do better. Hittick, place, 4 to 5. Long Dandy, place, 6 to 1. Tulane, place, 2 to 5.

 Winner—B. g. by St. Cyr—Miss Goodricke.
 Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third were driving hard. Harry Thoburn came to life with a start and ran a high-class race. He had speed to loan and smothered his field the first half. This is a very fast horse in the mud. The poverty of his last race accounts for the long price against him. Melo was badly outrun the first part of it and finished strong and true under punishment. He is at his best right now. Lord Fairfax showed speed, but weakened when the pinch came. Tom Kingley was sharply interfered with at the start. This ruined whatever chance he had. Tidie W. was outclassed and Treopia was not ready.

Scratched—14678 H. S. Tobacco, 110; 14558 George H. Ketcham, 96; 14631 Canova, 114; 14521 Violet Parsons, 96; 14678 Xalis-a, 96; 14681 J. H. C., 99.
Overweights—Ireopia, 2 pounds.
Harry Thornburn, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Molo, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Lord Fairfax, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Winner—B. f. by Top Gallant—Miss Courtney.
Post 6 minutes Start good. Won running away. Ida Ledford is an exceptionally speedy filly in the mud. She had nothing to contend with after John Baker and Sea Lion fell. The pair got an ugly-looking fall just after passing the three-furlong post but both jockeys and horses escaped injury. Rose was the cause of the accident. He tried to get through with John Baker on the inside and the horse jumped on Alice Turner and fell. Sea Lion was directly behind John Baker and he and Burns turned a complete somersault over Baker. The latter was making his run when the accident occurred and may have had a chance to win. Sea Lion was going rather easily at the time and he, too, would have given the winner an argument. Alice Turner swerved badly under punishment in the stretch. Rose remounted John Baker and finished for third money.

Overweights—Alice Turner, 3½ pounds.
Ida Leaford, place, 4 to 5. Alice Turner, place, 2 to 1. John Baker, place, out. Sea Lion, place, 7 to 10.

Time, 13. 27. 53.4. 1:08. 1:15.4.

Off at the first break to a fair start. Won easily; second and third driving hard. Brownie Anderson always held the others safe. Powell loafed along in a good position to the head of the stretch and when ready he shot the filly to the front like a flash. Tildee showed fine speed but the route was a trifle too far for her. When she stopped she stopped all over. Maharajah finished very fast on the outside and would have been second in a few more strides. Miss Fee, like Tildee, quit in the stretch. Azua was pumped out in the first three-sixteenths. The Rush never was a contender. Neither was Warm B. by.

Scratched—14665 Phallas, 106; 14669 Bonnyard, 112.

Brownie Anderson, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Tildee, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Maharajah, show, 2 to 1. The Rush, place, evens; show, 2 to 5.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, racing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siller) harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment. The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.
